

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

STATE OF WASHINGTON, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF
THE NAVY, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:19-cv-01059-RAJ-JRC

ORDER VACATING
SCHEDULING ORDER AND
ENTERING NEW DEADLINES

This matter is before the Court on plaintiff State of Washington's unopposed motion regarding the summary judgment briefing schedule in this matter. See Dkt. 68. Plaintiff requests that the summary judgment briefing schedule currently in force be vacated and that summary judgment briefing not be due until at least four weeks after the Court's ruling on the pending motion for preliminary injunction. See Dkt. 29.

Having considered plaintiffs' motion and that defendants have no opposition, and finding good cause thereof, the Court grants the request and vacates the prior scheduling order in this matter. See Dkt. 66. The parties shall comply with the following schedule:

1 (1) Plaintiffs' motions for summary judgment on all claims are due four weeks after
2 this Court issues a dispositive order on COER's Motion for Preliminary Injunction, Dkt. 29.

3 (2) Defendants' cross motions for summary judgment and their briefs in opposition to
4 plaintiffs' motions for summary judgment on all claims are due six weeks after the deadline for
5 plaintiffs' motions for summary judgment;

6 (3) Plaintiffs' oppositions to defendants' cross-motions and their replies in support of 7 their own motions are due six weeks after the deadline for defendants' cross motions for 8 summary judgment and briefs in opposition;

9 (4) Defendants' replies in support of their own motions are due six weeks after the 10 deadline for plaintiffs' oppositions and shall be directed toward arguments raised in plaintiffs'
11 oppositions to Defendants' cross-motions.

12 Dated this 1st day of June, 2020.
